

William Kenneth Clark

April 18, 1940 - April 17, 2026

William Kenneth Clark was born on April 18, 1940 in Santa Fe , New Mexico. He grew up in a happy family with his 2 sisters. After graduating from Santa Fe High School he joined the Navy and spent the next 2 years in California and in Adak, Alaska.

He was married for 11 years and during that time his two beautiful daughters Brenda and Donna were born.

Bill took an interest in the Bible and was Baptized as one of Jehovah Witness. He loved knowing that the creator, Jehovah God has promised to carry out his original purpose and restore the earth to perfect peaceful conditions. He took long trips on his bicycle across country, observing the wonders of creation. Bill married again in 1973 and he and his wife together opened a mobile dog grooming business. He loved his work. After caring for his wife who suffered from dementia, he sold his home in Albuquerque and moved here to Pueblo where Kay and her husband Charlie Brown, were living. They ,together with the Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses welcomed him with open arms and hearts. For now, Bill is sleeping but John 5:28 says: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

Bill's surviving family members include his daughters, Brenda Byrne and Donna Clark; and sisters, Kay Brown and Susan (Roger) Williams.
